ITINERARY:

Take a step back in time at old temple Wat Ket Karam where was built in 1428 and located near the Ping River, the river is the most famous and important commercial area in the past. Explore the temple and museum that exhibits the antiques and old photos for reaching Northern Thai culture and Buddhism. Then, amble along the riverside heritage path to see a combination style of building between Lanna - Chinese with Western architecture. Walk across the footbridge to Warorot Market, the largest wet and dry market in the city to find all traditional items. After walking quietly, you will experience the hustle and bustle environment to see local vibe and get authentic feeling on the living and culture of locals. Taste and bite local snacks and seasonal fruits. Continue trip by Samlor (Trishaw), a symbol and part of Chiang Mai's life with low speed and open views to roam along Thapae Road through the old city and walls. During your smoothly riding, you will sense for sights and sounds of people. Finally, hop off and sit back to relax with refreshing drinks before transfer to the hotel.
