ITINERARY:

Get yourself ready for the exciting trek in the heart of Chiang Mai city, the trip will start with visiting Ton Payom Market a fresh local market where you can enjoy buying fruit, local food, groceries, etc. Then, driving up to Doi Suthep – Pui National Park and stopping to visit Doi Suthep Temple, the most sacred temple surrounded by an amazing view where visitors can catch this moment with appreciation. After that, continue to the Forestry Camp as a starting point and enjoy trekking downhill where you will walk through the mixed evergreen forest. Additionally, you will pass a beautiful small waterfall, local animals, and a variety of trees. Some parts might be quite steep and slippery but mostly on well-established natural steps along with full of fresh air. The route ends at Monthatarn Waterfall where you can relax and appreciate the atmosphere at a valuable price. Before getting back to the hotel, fill up your stomach up with a great taste of local food that would be the precious ending of the trip.
